[July 23, 1908]

Dear Mrs. Petersen.

The Shelburne Post Master is here today working for me - & he asked him the way from Union to Shelburne. It is likely that the following itinerary is correct -

Follow the Conn. Valley to St.
Johnsbury VT, cross over to Lancaster - from Lancaster to Jefferson. Thence to Randolph thence to Gorham - a magnificent ride! Just as you come, the Carter Dome & range on your right; when you reach their precincts I think some one on the road will be able to tell you where our Knoll is. I am not pleased that you approach us by the back door. But let me not quarrel with the road that brings you. Yours truly

Shelburne, July 23. [1908]

D. W.

I wired you on rec^d of your telegram to Mrs. Dargan that she left me on Friday of last week having overstayed her time - by 4 days - apparently the message didn't reach you -
